DAY-11-SAT-11-MAR 2028-BANDHAVGARH NP

Today Celebrate the joy and colour of Holi with the lodge staff and fellow guests, creating memories that will last a lifetime.

Holi, known as the Festival of Colours, is one of India's most vibrant and joyful celebrations. Marking the arrival of spring and the triumph of good over evil, it is a time when people come together to laugh, forgive, and renew relationships. During the festivities, guests are invited to join the lodge team in a cheerful gathering filled with:

- Playful splashes of natural, organic colours (gulal)
- Traditional music and lively dance
- Delicious festive sweets
- Warm camaraderie with staff and fellow travellers

The atmosphere is relaxed, safe, and full of positive energy, allowing you to experience Holi in an authentic yet comfortable setting. It is a wonderful opportunity to connect with local culture, share smiles, and immerse yourself in one of India's most beloved traditions.

An unforgettable celebration of colour, culture, and community awaits you.
